

FALL FOLIAGE HIKES

Rentschler Forest MetroPark, Cascades Trail

The 0.8-mile Cascades Trail loop is the destination for leaf peepers at Rentschler Forest MetroPark. The trail meanders along Kennedy Creek and up a moderate hill to the top of the park. Take in the sights and sounds of the season on this colorful, shaded trail.

5701 Reigart Rd. Hamilton, OH 45011

Great Miami River Trail

The northern (Middletown) section of the Great Miami River Trail offers outdoor enthusiasts of all abilities a chance to view fall color. Nine miles of paved trail are accessible for bikes, strollers and wheelchairs. Spend a quiet afternoon walking next to the Great Miami River and admire the changing leaves with a leisurely stroll or bike ride.

Visit YourMetroParks.net for trailhead locations

Governor Bebb MetroPark, Chief Cornstalk Trail

There's nothing quite like the serenity of Governor Bebb MetroPark in the fall. Hit the 0.8-mile rustic Chief Cornstalk Trail during the morning hours when the sun's illuminating the parks' golden forest. Pack an early picnic lunch and relax in the nearby Howe Shelter after the hike.

1979 Bebb Park Ln. Okeana, OH 45053

Visit YourMetroParks.net for more information